Eana Haugen is back to school in the intermediate room after having been absent during the winter.

John and Thomas Bergren are leaving school, as they will leave for McHenry next week.

Friday afternoon the Intermediate room colored Easter eggs. Several little tots of the village also visited that room.

The English II class are studying Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar".

The Psychology class have completed their study of Feeling and Emotion and will next study the Will.

The boys of the High School and upper grades are planning to organize a basket ball team—the Hannaford Juniors. They are to hold a basket social on Friday night, April 30. The boys are on the square and surely deserve the support of the community.
