

Doings In Our School

Edited this week by Oscar Westley

Cooperstown has succeeded in getting a week of grace in which to prepare for the Hannaford giants. The debate has been postponed till March 3rd. Let the whole town come out and help Hannaford win. Almost every member of the Hannaford High School has decided to go.

Come with a toot!

Come with a rout!

Let Cooperstown hear it!

And know that all Hannaford

Wants this debate.

Washington's birthday was celebrated by a vacation at school.

Mrs. Angus and Mrs. Schmidt were visitors of school last Thursday afternoon.

Mervin, Amanda and Halmen Norderhaug have left school as they are going to Wisconsin to live.

The boys and girls at school are now enjoying the long waited for skating rink. It is located back of the school house this year.
