The mid-year State Examinations have been discontinued and the finals are given by local teachers. English Classes, Economics and Botany completed semester work last week. Drawing, Physical Geography, Civics, Psychology and Pedagogy begin this week.

On Monday of last week, a number of the Intermediate pupils from the country were absent on account of the bad weather.

Dr. B. H. Kroeze, of Jamestown College, spoke to the Grammar room and the High School pupils on Monday afternoon.

The following Intermediate pupils were absent part of the last week on account of illness: Dorothy Angus, Claris McCallson, Mary Judge, Thelma Dunnun, Philip Schmidt, Harold Thoreson.

Debate!

Place—Hannaford.

Time—Feb. 8th, 1917.

Question—Resolved: That the U. S. should adopt the Swiss Military System.

Teams — McHenry, affirmative; Hannaford, negative.

Since this is the first time that a High School debate has been held locally, every one ought to get out and boost the home team.
