Nov. 15-17--State Teachers Meeting at Fargo.

Nov. 24--Society Program, High School Room, 7:30 p. m.

Nov. 30, Dec. 2--Thanksgiving Recess.

Dec. 8--Examinations, Third Month.

There was no school last Tuesday, it being election day. The vacations are detrimental to efficient school work, and it will take an extra effort to keep up the grades this month.

On Monday Mr. Gran, of Rolla, N. D., spoke to the High School. After a few general remarks he gave us "The Man in the Shadow" which showed how the average boy and girl is lost in the mass of humanity after graduating from school. We desire to express our appreciation to Mr. Gran, that we were permitted to share his thought and estimate of school and life. It is not often one is apt to get such accurate estimates of worth. We so often allow sight to rob us of the very essentials of a successful life.

A Special Examination will be given in Algebra, Geometry, German, History and English on Nov. 15th, for delinquents in those subjects. Much depends on these examinations as a failure means inability to continue the courses. Parents are vitally concerned and should insist on double home preparation.

Much interest was shown in the results of the Presidential Election—it would seem that our "straw vote" was indicative.

Minnie Anderson, '17, is the new Substitute Teacher in the Intermediate Room, Oscar Westley, '17, being advanced up to the Manual Training Room. [Note by Mr. Robbins—it is not usual to entrust rooms to seniors.]

E. J. Edwards of Jamestown, and now our High School Inspector, is being urged to accept the Presidency of the Association for the coming year. There is no doubt but what with his experience and wide acquaintance he will be a very desirable candidate.

On a week from next Friday the first school program will be given. There will be the usual music numbers, current events, debate and a report on the year's work, closing by the
