

School Notes

Minnie Anderson, 16, Editor

Coming Events

Oct. 30—Halloween Carnival.

Nov. 3—Tom Thumb Wedding.

Nov. 15-17—State Teachers Meeting in Fargo.

Jennie Furaas returned to school on Monday after a few days' absence.

Mrs. W. K. Taylor visited the Primary room on Wednesday afternoon.

Selmer Aarestad started school on Wednesday of last week.

Frances Cathin left school on Monday as her parents moved out of town.

T. G. Pasco of Fargo, Ginn & Co. representative, was at school on Wednesday.

From The Clay County Republican:

The Tom Thumb wedding at the Tuttle Opera House Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Royal Neighbor lodge, was a highly enjoyable affair. The eighty-four little tots who took part in the cantata all did exceptionally well and the audience was delighted. Nov. 3rd at Hannaford.

The Sixth Grade has had perfect attendance the past week.

There are rumors that Tom Thumb is to be married sometime within the next month. Watch for announcements.

The first monthly examinations of this school year were written on Thursday and Friday. The report cards will be given out on Tuesday, Oct. 10th.

At a meeting of the teachers on Monday afternoon it was decided to offer $50 or thereabouts toward a piano. This money will be raised by school entertainments.