

Thou hast flown to thy rest
 From this wild sea of strife,
 But laden with golden wheat.
 One less at home
 The charmed circle broken,
 A dear baby face
 Missed day by day
 From an accustomed place;
 But cleansed and saved
 And perfected by grace,
 One more in Heaven.

Card of Thanks

To the dear friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in life's greatest trial, and those who sent and arranged the beautiful flowers, we tender our sincere thanks.

F. J. AARESTAD AND FAMILY

• • • • •
SCHOOL NOTES
 • • • • •

6

A reception was held for the teachers Monday night.

Miss Barkee is to attend the Institute next week and in her absence Miss Inez Jackson will have charge of her room.

Eight or nine second graders will make up the "model class" which is going to Cooperstown next Tuesday.

Helen Anderson was absent two days from school last week on account of her vaccination.

The English III class have been appointed editors of the High School Notes.

The Senior class was organized last week and the following officers were elected: President, William Westley; vice-president, Anna Anderson; secretary and treasurer, Edna Thoreson.

A picture was taken of the High School and grade students of the public school last Friday.

The Literary Society has been re-organized and the following officers elected: William Westley, president; Bertha Wilson, vice-president; Mildred Dunnun, secretary; Ralph Knauss, treasurer.

Eugene Judge had the misfortune to sprain his ankle while playing foot-ball last week.

Anna Stone entered school Wednesday.

The first regular meeting of the Literary Society was held last Friday afternoon, Oct. 12. A short program was given which was enjoyed by everyone. The program follows:

- Song "America" . . . . . Society
- Reading . . . . . Jennie Furos
- Piano Solo . . . . . Miss Campbell
- Recitation . . . . . Dorothy Angus
- Piano Duet . . . . . Dorothy Schmiat and Phyllis Schmidt
- Humor . . . . . William Westley
- Critique . . . . . Prof. Rice