

School Notes

Erma G. Armstrong, '17, Editor

Coming Events

Oct. 30—Hallowe'en Carnival.

Nov. 3—Tom Thumb Wedding.

Nov. 15-17—State Teachers' Meeting in Fargo.

The visitors at school this week were Mrs. Angus and Mrs. Schmidt.

Wilmur Wilson has entered the English I class.

Arthur Forthun began school last Monday.

New texts entitled "The Elements of Economics" by Bullock are now being used by the Economics class. The subject will undoubtedly prove to be interesting.

The English IV class write a theme weekly. The subjects written on were "I Had in Mind a Garden I would Possess", "My Room After a Severe Disappointment", and the "Face of That Baby".

The Committee on Advertising expect to get out the first bills of the Carnival this week. Watch the telephone posts!

South Milford, Ind.: "The Marriage of the Midgets, or the Tom Thumb Wedding, was given to a large and well-pleased audience. The evening's entertainment proved one of constant laughter."

The Hallowe'en Carnival is taking form slowly, which would but indicate the substantial nature of the event. There, of course, will be a "real" ghost, living in the Room of Horror; each tourist will be furnished a trusty guide, however. If you are of a timid disposition, you may elect to not undergo this very unusual feature and simply have the "gypsy" tell your fortune or eat candy at the "Booth" or "Play Games". A part of the Entertainment includes a Program by the Intermediate and Grammar rooms. Supper will be served by "witches".

Redmon, Ill.: "The Tom Thumb wedding was a screaming success. It exceeded our expectations in every way."