After the Literary Society program Mr. A. W. Johnson entertained us with reminiscences of early Wisconsin school days, impersonations and vivid imitations of our barnyard friends. The following people were visitors at the meeting. Mesdames Dunnum, Rud. Bergren, Anderson, P. A. Thoreson, C. Coddling and O. C. Westley; the Misses Anderson, Noble, Wilcox, Nesdaahl, Kalvik, Olga and Elsie Sanden; and Messrs. Taylor, Benson, Jackson and O.M. Westley.

Miss Nesdaahl visited the High School and Primary rooms on Tuesday. Mrs. Coddling visited High School Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Coddling, Miss Purdon, Esther Pederson, Jeanette Westley, Willard and Kenneth Markuson, Selmer and Julius Aarestad and Charles Brown autoed to Cooperstown Thursday evening to hear the debate between Cooperstown and Hatton. Mr. Musburger of Fargo College, one of the judges of the debate, came back in the Hannaford autos and visited school here on Friday.

Mr. Musburger gave the Grammar grades and High School a short but inspiring talk on the value of literary work.
