The regular meeting of the Adelpi Literary Society will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Jackson visited school Thursday.

During the absence of Mr. Coding last week, Mr. Sad taught the Economics and the three English classes.

An original story by Marjorie Sinclair, third grade:

A DUTCH BOY

Once there lived in Holland, a Dutch boy whose name was Andrew. He had golden hair and blue eyes. He wore wooden shoes, a tight green jacket and dark blue bloomers.

One day his father called to him. He said, "My boy, this is yours," and he placed in the boy's hands, a ship. "Thank you, father," said the boy. Andrew at once named the ship, the Mayflower.

He then went to sail his ship but first tied a cord to it. It was nice down by the water. The first thing that happened was that the string broke and the Mayflower sailed away.

Poor Andrew went home, crying as though his heart would break. When he got home it was time to go to bed and Andrew cried himself to sleep that night.
