

DOINGS IN OUR SCHOOL

School commenced last Monday after a two weeks' vacation. We were all glad to get back and continue our school work.

The meeting of the Adelphi Literary Society which was to have been held Thursday evening was postponed until next Thursday, Jan. 21. Everybody welcome.

The Hockey team has now begun to practice in earnest. There have been several practices and the boys enjoy it although they do take some tumbles.

Genevi and Hildora Aarestad and Amanda and Mervin Norderhaug are new pupils in the Primary room.

The pupils of the Grammar room are enjoying the reading of the story of "White Fangs" by Jack London.

The fourth year English class has just finished reading the first three books of "Paradise Lost" by Milton.

Mrs. William Angus and Mrs. C. P. Schmidt visited school last Friday afternoon.

Fred W. Merrill gave us a very interesting talk on Milk last Friday morning. We enjoyed it very much. We surely all learned something new about milk.
