

DOINGS IN OUR SCHOOL

Pupils neither absent nor tardy for the past month in the Intermediate department are: Minnie Brekke, Eugene Judge, Russel Richardson, Myrtle Aarstad, Hazelle Brunsvold, Emma Bengren, Custer Stainey, Lydia Thoreson, Harry Westley, Magna Edet, Ione Johnson, Harry Richardson, and Phyllis Schmidt. Those neither absent nor tardy in the Grammar room are: Alice Angus, Maired Dunning, Lyle Judge, Ralph Knauss, Kenneth Markison, Oliver Thoreson and William Westley.

The English Class is reading Hawthorne's "Tales of the White Hills."

The English IV class is working on the debate question: Resolved that the government should own and operate all public telegraph and telephone lines. This question is to be debated with the Cooperstown High School debating team at Cooperstown next Thursday evening. The debaters chosen from the Hannaford High School are Charles Brown, Philip Thoreson and Jeannette Westley. It is hoped that as many of the Hannaford people as can possibly arrange it will go with the team to cheer them on to victory.

The Adelphi Literary Society held their regular meeting last Thursday evening. The following program was rendered:

Music	Male Quartette
