

DOINGS IN OUR SCHOOL

Russell Richardson has been promoted to the fifth grade.

Mrs. Wm. Angus, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Coddin visited school on Monday.

Spring is surely coming; the boys are practicing base ball.

The regular meeting of the Adelphi Literary Society was held last Thursday evening. The following program was rendered:

Music . . . . . Girls Glee Club

Day in June . . . . . Lyle Judge

The Skeleton in Armour . . . . . William Westley

Psalm of Life . . . . . Kenneth Markuson

The Children's Hour . . . . . Alice Angus

The Village Blacksmith . . . . . Midred Dunnum

Original Story . . . . . Lilly Cederson

Doings in Our Legislature . . . . . Inez Jackson

Life of Lowell . . . . . Laura Fogderud

Life of Longfellow . . . . . Norma Brunsvold

Newspaper Editor-in-Chief . . . . . Jeanette Westley

Solo, When Song is Sweet . . . . . Miss Purdon

Humor . . . . . Willard Markuson

Reading . . . . . Miss McAndrew

Critique . . . . . Miss Lykken

After the program the following officers were elected: President, Julius Aarestad; Vice-President, Selmer Aarestad; Secretary, Mabel Peterson. Among the visitors who attended the Literary Society were Mesdames Thoreson, Brunsvold and Coddin; Mr. Sorenson, Sadie Sorenson and Soren Krag. The Society has decided to purchase pencils bearing the name of the Society. They will be sold to the pupils and other people wishing to buy; the profits to go toward paying for the Encyclopedias.

Philip Thoreson and Julius Aarestad entertained the High School at a costume party last Monday evening at the Ladies Hall. The evening was spent in playing games and at a wee hour of the night the guests departed pronouncing Philip and Julius royal entertainers.

The English IV class has just completed the study of the life of Samuel Coleridge and his poems.

The Adelphi Literary Society is going to give a big basket social Wednesday evening at the Opera House. Everyone come and bring a basket. Penalty for those belonging to the Society who do not bring one.