

Doings In Our School

Edited this week by Minnie Anderson

The following have been neither absent or tardy in the grammar room the past month:

Mildred Dunnum.

Ione Johnson.

Lyle Judge.

Ralph Knauss.

Lillian Kurtz.

Dorothy Schmidt.

Phyllis Schmidt.

Custer Stafney.

Oliver Thoreson.

The pupils of the intermediate room had their first examinations this year on Thursday and Friday of last week. This was the fourth grade's first experience in written examinations.

Gabriel Ness visited the high school one day last week.

The members of the German II class have subscribed for a German magazine called "Aus Nah und Fern."

Esther Pederson is to be our organist next week.

The English III class has been studying the life and works of William Cullen Bryant and also has been memorizing "Thanatopsis," one of his best poems.

Pearl Blix enrolled in the high school room last Monday.

Professor Coddling entertains the high school pupils every morning except Wednesday, which is current event morning, by reading a chapter from the book, "Up From Slavery."

The music class has been studying the lives and works of Chas. Francis Gounad and Richard Wagner, two great composers.

About one hundred volumes of new books have been received by the High School Library and as soon as they are classified they will be open for students to read.

The following in the High School room have been neither absent nor tardy the past month.

Esther Pederson.

Erma Armstrong.

Edith Olson.

Marion Markwood.

Julia Forthun.

Eugene Markwood.

William Westley.

Oscar Westley.

Orney Dunnum.

Raymond Gilbertson.

Kenneth Markenson.

Mrs. Angus visited the high school on Friday.