

Doings In Our School

Edited this week by Edythe Olson

There are twelve pupils in the first year High School, six in the second, five in the third and one in the fourth; making the total enrollment in the High School twenty-four.

Mabel Peterson and Jennie Furaas have been our organists the past two weeks.

On Wednesday morning in the High School the roll call is answered by current events.

The English I class has been reading Burrough's "Sharp Eyes."

The American Literature class has been studying the life and works of Washington Irving.

Miss Frances Lauder is our new assistant principal. Her home is at Wahpeton, N. Dak., and she has an A. B. degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Rehberg is the new teacher in the Intermediate room. She is from Ellendale, N. Dak., and has graduated from the Normal Industrial School there. She has taught at Page, N. Dak., for the last three years. They both have gained a wide circle of friends while here, and are very well qualified for their positions.

The enrollment in the Grammar room is eleven.

There has been two cases of absence and seven cases of tardiness in the High School. Let us improve our record.

Anna Stone enrolled in the High School, but on account of sickness had to give up her school work for this year.

There are ten pupils enrolled in the sixth grade, five in the fifth, and eleven in the fourth.

The fourth grade geography class is much interested at present in making a record of the weather from day to day, from personal observation.

The sixth grade has a new geographical reader of the United States which they are alternating with "Dodge's Advanced."

The fifth grade language class is studying "Barbara Frietchie," the fourth grade, "Barefoot Boy" and the sixth grade is taking up selections from Ruskin's "King of the Golden River."

The attendance in the Primary room this year is twenty-nine.

Mrs. C. Bergren was a Primary room visitor Friday afternoon.

Professor (in German class) "Orney, wo ist ihr mund?" (Orney, where is your mouth?)

"Er ist auf meinem Kopfe." (It is on my head.)
