

week by Thelma Dunnum and Myrtle Westley.

The Debating team have been studying for the debate with McHenry on the seventeenth of this month.

Emil Magnuson has entered the Grammar Room

Orney Dunnum has been chosen as a substitute for Edith Olson on the debating team. Orney ranked No. 4, among the debating contestants.

Those in the intermediate room neither absent nor tardy for the month of November are: Eleanor Cederson, Russel Richardson, Lydia Thoreson, Dorothy Angus, Bernice Bockenkamp, Thelma Dunnum, Carl Haugen, Myrtle Westley.

The intermediate room reports 41 cases of tardiness during November: this is a poor record, and should be corrected in the future.

When a member of the Literary Society approaches you with a ticket to the Christian Hanson concert, remember you will be benefitting two parties by buying even one ticket—the Literary Society and yourself.