

Melvin Heyerdahl's Ford car sustained serious damages Sunday evening when it was driven off the road just a few feet west of the crossing by the N. P. depot. The car remained upright but ran up against the plank crossing leading to the fire hall, with the result that the front spring and axle, crank and crank case, wind-shield and head-lights were broken.