

Sentinel-Courier: Ernest Iverson writes that the boys from Coopersville arrived safely at Camp Dodge, near Moines, Iowa, and are getting their shoes covered with the famous 250.00 acre mud, and that they are well taken care of at the camp. Ernest passed the examination, and writes that he, together with the best of the boys, is elected to stay.