

On Friday of last week a deal was consummated whereby David Marson disposed of his 160-acre farm four miles south of Cooperstown to the Wufflestad Bros., the consideration being $70 per acre. Mr. Marson contemplates moving to California to make his future home. The Marson farm was one of the best pieces of land in the county, and the Wufflestad Bros. have acquired a valuable property.