

McHenry Tribune: The threshing crew on the Olaf Melby farm near Grace City, two and one-half miles southeast of town, dug up the ground on top of the hill in the pasture Saturday and the supposition that it was an Indian grave proved true, as a skull and stone hatchet were found. Several traces of an Indian camping ground are found there, especially the circle of rocks which an old Indian explained were used to hold their tents down.