

Mekal Mogaard had the misfortune to lose his automobile, automobile shed and a couple of hundred dollars worth of tools by fire early last Saturday evening. Mr. Mogaard had just returned home from town, and had run his car into the shed. He struck a match and an explosion occurred the fire spreading so rapidly that there was no time to save anything.