

Elmer Ofstedahl of Grafton, N. D., who is a nephew of Nels and Melvin Markuson, was wounded in France on May 8. Elmer was a member of the 31st Canadian Battalion which left Winnipeg for England early in November. The Battalion left for France Jan. 1st and has been in the trenches since. The contingent that young Ofstedahl was in was in the thick of the fighting at Vimy ridge. In a letter to his brother, Capt. Ofstedahl of Co. C he stated that he was wounded in the leg and did not expect to be laid up for long.
