

Leo and Alfred Olson and Kenneth Markuson shipped three carloads of cattle and horses to Canada some time ago and will engage in the stock raising business. The Olson boys have rented a tract of eleven sections of fenced land, and have thus an ideal place for ranching purposes.