

Tom Olson left on Saturday's train for St. Luke's Hospital, Fargo. Tom had been troubled for some time with a bad cold which threatened to settle on the lungs, and after several experiences with pneumonia Tom decided to prevent complications this time.