

Dazey Commercial: Dr. Nolte has two more diphtueria cases in his charge. Edgar, the seven-year-old son of Severin Sorenson, who lives northeast of Dazey is one of the patients, and Gilbert Ross, a seven-year-old nephew of Cal Ross, with whom he was making his home, is quite seriously ill, having waited several days before receiving medical attention.