

Albert Sebby had quite a runaway out near Revere last Tuesday. Fortunately no damage was done either to the horses or cutter, but the horses must have been running some as all their shoes were gone when they came to a stop.