

Mrs. P. A. Thoreson and Mrs. C. L. Peterson returned home Sunday from Minneapolis where they had been to attend their brother Gilbert who for a time was not expected to survive the effects of an operation for appendicitis. He is now so far recovered that he is regarded as out of danger. His brothers, Carl and Albert, returned home about a week ago.