

Philip Thoreson, who had been home to visit his mother who is sick, left here Thursday to join his company which is a present stationed at Fargo. Nearly all the citizens of the village met up at the depot to give him a rousing send-off. The band was on hand to render a number of patriotic selections and the school pupils were present and contributed to the patriotic spirit by giving the school yells. Philip was the first Hannaford boy to respond to the country's call for volunteers.
