

Mrs John Van Scoik sustained a severe injury Sunday evening a week ago while on her way home from church. She slipped on an icy place in the road, and fell, striking her head on the ground. At last reports she is recovering nicely from the injury.