

Walum News Notes

Arvie Wunderlich returned from Fargo Monday.

Nicolai Swenson went to Valley City Monday.

Mrs. Carl F. Werner and Mrs. Henry Lewis were at Cooperstown between trains Tuesday.

J. C. Evenson of Syre, Minn., is visiting with his son C. A. Evenson.

Chester Wunderlich left Thursday evening for Minneapolis.

Chas. Wieseman arrived Friday to look after his interests here.

Mrs. Chas. Nelson was at Hannaford between trains Friday.

Carl Rohlwing and Edwin Everson were at Hannaford on business Friday.

Several Christmas programs will take place in and around Walum but the dates have not yet been made definite.

A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Mandrup Miklethun of Walum on Monday evening by their many friends throughout this vicinity. A delicious lunch was served and parlor games composed the general amusements.

C. A. Evenson has been suffering from an attack of lagrippe for the past week and has been obliged to remain at home. However, his condition is now improving.