Fred Butler returned Friday from California where he had gone to spend the winter. Evidently Fred likes North Dakota best as he returned sooner than he originally planned.

Chas. Weiseman went to Fargo on business Friday.

Miss Elizabeth Carroll and Mr. M. Stahl left Friday for Fargo. From what rice was strewn around the depot it appears there's a wedding in sight.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson went to Hannaford Saturday.

Mrs. A. Anundson left Friday for New Rockford. She came here to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. A. Nelson.

The McInes brothers left Friday for their home at Kelso, N. D., having ben here for the funeral of their sister Mrs. C. A. Nelson.

Mrs. C. A. Nelson

Mrs. C. A. Nelson died last Saturday at the hospital in Valley City. The remains were taken here for interment. On account of train service being suspended on this branch it became necessary to go via Casselton and the Great Northern to Hannaford.

Funeral services were held at the Nelson home Friday at 2 p. m., Rev. Lodge of Dazey officiating. Many beautiful floral offerings were given interment was made in the church yard cemetery.

Mrs. Nelson with her husband has lived in this vicinity since their marriage and she had a host of friends who mourned her death.

She left a husband, one son, mother, three sisters and four brothers to mourn her death.
