

Walum News Notes

Fred Butler spent last Sunday in Rogers with relatives.

Miss Nettie Olson and Gert Toenberg were at Cooperstown last Monday having some dental work done.

Chester Wunderlich was a Hannaford passenger last Monday.

Harvey Rasmussen returned Monday from a short visit at Dazey.

Geo. Besek was up from Rogers last Monday on business.

E. W. Everson went to Hannaford Monday to attend to some important business matters.

Theo. Rasmussen went to Valley City last Monday to make an auto trade. He returned home Tuesday.

Mesdames Jacobson, Nelson and Clark were at Cooperstown Tuesday.

Raymond Rohlwing accompanied by his father returned home Tuesday from Fargo where he had been taking treatments for an attack of appendicitis. His condition is very much improved and we are glad to learn an operation was not necessary.

Miss Martha Trangsrud arrived Tuesday for a visit at the home of M. O. Walua. She left again Wednesday evening for Bismarck.

Mesdames Werner, Nelson, Clark, Hegge and Jacobson invaded Hannaford Wednesday.

Bert McInnes and Fred Krueger were up for a short business call Wednesday.

Miss Clara Rasmussen was at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Miss Nettie Olson, our teacher, received news Wednesday that her mother was seriously ill at New Richmond, Wis. School was closed and Miss Olson left the same evening for her mother's bedside. We understand Miss Olson will not return to finish the present term of school on account of her mother's poor health. A number of the pupils were at the station to bid her good-bye. Miss Kaas of Hannaford has been secured to take charge of the school temporarily, or until a definite appointment is made.

Arvie Wunderlich and Ted Rasmussen took in the sights at Hannaford Wednesday.

Emmell Hoffman was at the county seat Thursday between trains.

E. W. Everson and Geo. Jacobson were at Valley City Thursday on business.

Dan Clark of Edmunds is spending a few days at the Jacobson home.

Mesdames Nelson and Hegge were at Hannaford Friday having some dental work done.

Carl and Harvey Rasmussen went to Dazey Friday to take in the dance.

Eric Heyerdahl and son Carl were at the county seat Saturday on business.

Clara Markwood was a passenger to Cooperstown Saturday.
