

Walum News Notes

Miss Lydia Halvorson arrived Saturday from a visit at her home in the east, where she spent the holidays. She resumed teaching in the Heyerdahl school Monday.

Mrs. A. D. Anderson arrived home Saturday from Bismarck where she had been to spend the holidays with her folks. Her trip was not as pleasant as it should have been as she was taken down with lagrippe while in Bismarck.

Raymond Shearer came up from Dazey Saturday to spend the week end at the Nelson home.

Fred Johnston returned from an eastern trip Saturday.

Arvie Wunderlich returned home Saturday from a few days' visit with friends at Dazey.

Andrew Wogslund returned home from Fargo Saturday where he has been receiving treatment for his eyes.

Chas Weiseman came down from Hannaford Saturday for a visit at the Nelson home.

County Commissioner P. C. Nelson was a passenger to Cooperstown Monday.

Mrs. C. A. Nelson and son Percy went to Hannaford Monday to have some dental work done.

J. C. Evenson of Syre, Minn., arrived Monday for a visit with his son C. A. Evenson. He returned to his home again Tuesday.

Elmer O. Walum was a passenger for Fargo last Monday where he took in the Grain Growers convention and returned home Thursday.

Julius Halvorson was at the county seat Tuesday seeking medical aid.

Nicolai Swenson was a business visitor in the village Tuesday going from here to Dazey on the south-bound passenger the same evening.

Chas. J. Everson, a brother of E. W. Everson, arrived Tuesday from River Falls, Wis., for a visit at the Everson farm.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson was at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Geo. E. Atchison, auditor for the Great Western Grain Co., made a business call on the company's agent Theo. Remussen Thursday.

Justin Wallum and wife left Friday for a few days visit at Luverne.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson was a Cooperstown passenger Friday.

Mandrup Miklethun and wife were Hannaford visitors Friday.

C. A. Evenson is at Cooperstown relieving N. P. Agent Barnes of that point for a few days.

E. W. Everson returned home Friday after a couple weeks' absence. He has been on business to Minneapolis and also visited in Wisconsin, stopping at Fargo on his return home where he attended the Grain Growers convention.

Eric O. Wallin was at Fargo for the Grain Growers convention, returning home Friday, after making a circle tour via Cooperstown.

Although the dance given in the Walum Hall Friday evening was given very little publicity except by telephone, on account of the short time after arrangements had been made, they were favored with a fair crowd. Music was furnished by the Dazey orchestra and every one had a time of their life.

James Bothwell was a Cooperstown passenger Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Markwood and Miss McDonald were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Miss Anna Carroll was at the county seat Saturday.