

Walum News Notes

Nie Swenson went to Valley City Wednesday to get his family. They will make their home on the farm southwest of town for a few months.

The Hannaford band and a number of Hannafordites, some of whom were dressed in gay colors and acting the part of the clown, stopped awhile in town Thursday and gave us some good music. They were on an advertising tour for the Hannaford Chautauqua which will take place from July 13th to 18th. They made a circle tour via Dazey, Luverne, Cooperstown, Jessie and Sutton.

Jas. Carroll and daughter Elizabeth went to Valley City Saturday evening to spend the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson returned from Frazee and other Minnesota points Wednesday where they had been to spend the Fourth.

Jim Casey returned from Detroit, Minn., Wednesday where he had taken in the celebration July 4th.

Several autos from here went to Rogers Sunday to take in the ball game there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson and Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson went to Cooperstown Saturday.