

Walum News Notes

Quite a number of local people attended the state fair at Fargo last week. All report a good fair was given.

Jas. Bothwell was at Cooperstown between trains last Tuesday.

Miss Ida Johnson left for her home at Carrington Thursday after having visited a week at the Jacobson home.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson was at Hanaford between trains Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jacobson and Mrs. Martha Hegge motored to Valley City Sunday evening.

The Walum and Dazey ball teams played a very exciting game on the home grounds Sunday which resulted in a victory for the home boys the score being 18 to 23. The game was one of many hits and errors and all spectators enjoyed watching the match until the first half of the ninth inning when a foul ball was hit directly amongst a bunch of automobiles and striking the little three year old daughter of O. A. Gilbertson in the face. The game then ended very sadly. At first it was thought that the injury was serious but Dr. Benson was consulted and it was learned that no bones were broken and that the little one would soon be alright.

Mrs. Elmer Wallum returned home from a visit with relatives and friends in Wisconsin the fore part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rosvold and family of Viceroy, Sask., were here last Thursday calling on friends. They left Thursday for their home at Viceroy after having spent the past six weeks visiting in Minnesota and here.

Mrs. J. Rasmussen and daughter left for their home near Gary, Minn. after having visited a week at the home of her son, Theo. H.

The crops in this vicinity are certainly fine appearing but there seems to be some fear of the heavy rust damaging the wheat crop. The excessive rains and heavy morning dews with hot days have been real rust producers. However there is a varied difference of opinion as to whether the crops have been damaged or not. Here's hoping they're not.

Its a rather unusual sight to see teams waiting for their turn at the elevator at this time of the year but nevertheless such has been the case here at times in the past week.
