

Walum

News

Notes

Fred F. Butler went to Rogers last Saturday to spend Sunday with his brother.

Jas. Bothwell went to Jessie last Monday on business and to visit with friends.

Mrs. A. D. Anderson was a passenger for Hannaford last Monday.

Bert Melunis was a business visitor in town last Monday from Dazey.

Henry Kjelson came up from Dazey last Monday for an afternoon visit with his brother Emil.

Andrew Fogderud went to Fargo last Monday for medical attention. He returned home Wednesday feeling very much relieved.

A very delightful farewell party was given in honor of Harry B. McGann at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rohlwing last Monday evening. Progressive whist was played until 11 P. M. and after which a very delightful lunch was served, plates being placed for sixteen. Mr. McGann was presented with a very beautiful fountain pen as a remembrance of his many friends in this community. Harry expects to leave the first part of this week for his home at Pallock, S. D.

E. O. Duff of Dazey was a business visitor in town last Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Carrol left last Tuesday for Binford where she is teaching school, after having spent a weeks vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Wallum left last Tuesday for New England where Mr. Wallum will take charge of his brother in law's farm. They expect to be gone for some time.

Aadne Vigessaa was a Fargo passenger last Tuesday on business. He returned home Saturday.

Railroad commissioner Stutsman and examiner Fred M. Schultz were here last Tuesday investigating conditions of the North Dakota Grain Company, which was closed by the commission. A number of farmers in this vicinity are holding storage tickets of the company and are somewhat uneasy since the closing of the elevator.