

Walum

News

Notes

Toby Olson was up from Dazey last Saturday calling on friends.

Emil Kjelson spent last Sunday visiting relatives and friends at Dazey.

Carl F. Werner, H. J. Carroll and Julius Larsen were at Hannaford last Monday on business.

E. L. Nelson arrived from Fargo Monday and has commenced working at the bank. He is filling the place left vacant by Carl F. Werner, who now has charge of the store.

Carl Rasmussen went to Dazey last Monday for an overnight visit with acquaintances.

Miss Davidson was down from Hannaford and spent last Sunday visiting friends.

Mrs. Carl A. Nelson has been on the sick-list. Her condition, however, is improving.

Ole Pederson left Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Plaza.

August Werth was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

The election last Tuesday was held in the hall and the following candidates were elected for our township: H. G. Rohlwing, supervisor; C. A. Nelson, clerk; Geo. J. Jacobson, treasurer; F. Toenberg, assessor; Carl Rasmussen and C. K. Stromme, constables.

Myrtle Everson returned Tuesday from a prolonged visit with her sister Mrs. J. P. Danielson at Birchwood.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson and children arrived Tuesday from Detroit, Minn. Mr. Anderson is making the trip with a team of horses and should arrive any day now. They expect to settle down in this community and will probably farm on a small scale to commence with.

Henry Lewis was at Hannaford Wednesday on business.

W. W. Bothwell went to Coopers-town Wednesday to attend to some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Anderson left Wednesday for Bismarck where they will visit with relatives until April 1st at which time Mr. Anderson will assume the position as manager of one of the general merchandise stores at Woodworth.

Harry B. McGann left Wednesday for Pollock, S. D., where he expects to locate.

Miss Clara Rasmussen visited at Hannaford between trains Thursday.

John Martinson was at Coopers-town between trains Thursday.

Miss Lulu Larson instructed her class in music Thursday instead of Tuesday on account of election being held in the hall on Tuesday.

H. G. Rohlwing was a county seat passenger Thursday.

Mrs. M. O. Wallum returned from Cooperstown Friday where she has been visiting her daughter the past few days.

Alfred Fogderud was at the county seat on business between trains Saturday.

E. W. Everson was at Hannaford on business Saturday.

Chester Wunderlich was a Hannaford visitor Saturday.

Jacob L. Miklethun left Saturday evening for points in Iowa.