

WALUM

LOCALS

Short News Notes from Our Neighboring Town to the South

Eric O. Wallin returned last Saturday from Chicago and points in Wisconsin where he had been attending the wedding of his brother.

Melvin Heyerdahl returned last Monday from an extended visit in the Twin Cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson returned last Monday from Fargo where they had spent the week end.

Carl L. Rohling was at Hannaford between trains last Monday.

Elmer Nelson returned home Tuesday from points in southern Minnesota where he had been visiting relatives.

A. D. Anderson arrived home from Fargo Tuesday having spent the past week there on business.

Swen Swenson and Carl Haines arrived home Tuesday after having spent the last two months visiting at points in Wisconsin.

Carl A. Nelson went to Valley City Tuesday evening on legal business.

The usual good time was enjoyed by all at the social Tuesday evening.

Arvie Wunderlich visited at Dazey Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Haldor Stromme and daughter spent Thursday and Friday at Cooperstown visiting friends.

Christine Rasmussen returned home Thursday from Dazey where she had been relieving one of the "hello girls" who was on a vacation.

Eric Heyerdahl and son Melvin were county seat passengers Friday.

Mrs. A. D. Anderson was at Cooperstown between trains Friday having some dental work done.

August Werth was at Cooperstown Friday on business.

Auditor Atchison of the Great Western Grain Co. made a business visit at the company's office here.

Christ Hanson was at the county seat Friday transacting business.

Marvin Wallum went to Cooperstown Friday to visit with his sister Mrs. Trangrud.

Henry Kjelson was up from Dazey between trains Friday visiting with his brother Emil.

Robert Lane left for Edmunds Friday evening after having spent a week visiting at the Jacobson home.

On account of the roads being so poor the attendance at the dance Friday evening was not as good as usual.

Mrs. Theo. Rasmussen and Grace Wogslund were at Hannaford Saturday.