

Walum News Notes

Miss Lulu Larson was up from Dazey last Tuesday.

Mrs. P. C. Nelson has been visiting friends at Cooperstown for the past few days.

Miss Bessie Michaelson is visiting with Miss Hattie Johnson at Rohlwing's. They spent last Tuesday at Cooperstown.

Eric Rud was down from Hannaford for a brief visit with friends Wednesday.

Dr. S. Juell was at Hannaford between trains Wednesday and Saturday demonstrating a kerosene mantle lamp for which he has secured the agency. Thus far he has met with fairly good success.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rohlwing left Thursday for Waterloo Iowa where they had been called to attend the funeral of Mr. Rohlwing's sister.

Seeding thruout this vicinity has been rushed to its limit the past week and most of the farmers now have finished sowing wheat.

Carl F. Werner has purchased a new Oakland touring car from the Duff-Barr Auto Company of Dazey.

A large gang of Italians are at work putting in new ties on the branch. They will be in Walum until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evenson motored to Valley City Wednesday.

E. W. Everson returned from St. John N. D. last Wednesday. He came back via Fargo where he stopped over one day.

Jacob Mikiethun has purchased a new Paige car from the Hammer Condy Co. of Cooperstown.

Mrs. Clara Markwood and Miss Belle McDonald were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.