

Walum News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wunderlich left for Minneapolis Friday, where they expect to make their home for the winter months.

J. B. Clabots of Jamestown spent a few days here on business.

Mrs. Mandrup Micklethun and daughter Minnie were at Cooperstown between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson left last Monday for Fargo for medical attention.

Jas. Bothwell returned Saturday from a short visit at Cooperstown.

C. A. Evenson returned Tuesday from Fargo where he had been on business.

Mrs. Martha Hegge went to Valley City Tuesday returning Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid supper and sale here Thursday drew a record breaking crowd.

Eric O. Wallin arrived Saturday with a carload of heifers which he had purchased at St. Paul.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson returned home Tuesday after a short visit with relatives at Cooperstown.

A. M. Hewson of Dover township was here Tuesday getting acquainted with the voters in the interests of his candidacy for clerk of court.

Members of the Non-Partisan league held a meeting in the hall here Tuesday.

Arrangements have been made with Tillies Orchestra to furnish music for the big dance here Wednesday November 8th. A big crowd is expected.

Justin Walum went to Cooperstown Wednesday.