

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES • • • • •

Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson left Tuesday evening for Anoka where she will have her eyes treated. She was accompanied by her father E. W. Ever-son.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wunderlich of Walum last Tuesday. Mrs. Wunderlich is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sietten at Hannaford.

Olaf Nelson returned Tuesday from a brief business trip to Crete, N. Dak.

The Greenfield school board met Tuesday at the home of Eric Wallin in regular session.

Chas. Wieseman left Tuesday for Minneapolis on a business mission.

Chester Wunderlich showed up Tuesday with an unusually broad smile, bought the smokes and announced the arrival of a baby girl at his home. We are glad to learn that both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Joe and Robert Nelson left Monday for their home at Clarissa, Minn after having spent the summer in this vicinity.

The Red Cross Barket Carnival Given Thursday evening in the Hall proved a success both as to entertainment and financially. The net proceeds were $81.80 which amount will be used with other funds to purchase materials for making comforts for the boys at the front.

Andrew Thompson left Thursday for Valley City to visit with friends.

Wm. Anderson arrived Friday from Luverne where he has been threshing this fall.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson and children arrived Saturday from Luverne.