

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Geo. Medley entertained his Sunday School class Wednesday evening at his farm home as a farewell in honor of Frances Coates, a member of the class who is leaving with his parents for Minnesota. The class has recently been organized under the name of "The Willing Workers" with the following officers: Clifford Wogsland, president; Gerd Toenberg, secretary; Alberta Wogsland, vice president, and Axel Everson, treasurer.

The class gathered about 5 o'clock and played parlor games until 6 o'clock, when they were given a delicious chicken supper, plates being set for sixteen.

After supper the parlor games were continued until 8:30 when the class left for their homes selecting as their motto—"Where there's a will there's a way." Those present expressed themselves as having had a real pleasant time.

Hans Haugen and son Bennie returned Tuesday from a trip to Bismarck where they appeared before the district board to claim exemption for Bennie. The outcome is not yet made known.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Sunday evening for Fargo. From Fargo Mr. Jacobson went to Bismarck on business while Mrs. Jacobson visited with Miss Grace Wogsland, who is attending school at Fargo. They returned home Tuesday.

Nic Swenson left Tuesday for Valley City.

Geo. J. Jacobson was a Dazey passenger Tuesday evening.

Elmer Wallum left Wednesday for Minneapolis where he will have some dental work done.

E. W. Everson and daughter Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson returned Thursday from Minneapolis where Mrs. Gilbertson has been taking treatments for her eyes. They were accompanied from Moorhead by Miss Caroline Gilbertson, who will visit at the Gilbertson home for a few days.

The St. Olaf Ladies Aid held their annual supper and sale in the Walum hall Friday evening and altho the weather was rather bad a large crowd turned out and the affair was a success. Chicken supper was served after which the many articles that had been made during the year were auctioned off by Alfred Nelson.

L. Hardesty and daughter arrived last Saturday and are visiting at the Wunderlich home.

Mrs. Justin Wallum left Friday for a visit with friends at Luverne.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Friday evening on a business and pleasure trip to Minneapolis.

Misses Anna and Selma Olson spent between trains at Hannaford Saturday.