

---

Walum News Notes

Jas. Bothwell was a county seat passenger last Monday.

James McGarry of Rogers was in town last Tuesday on business.

Mrs. N. K. Markuson was at Cooperstown between trains Thursday.

Eric O. Wallin went to south St. Paul Thursday to purchase a carload of young stock which he will feed up on his farm east of town. Seems the farmers are taking keener interest in diversified farming on account of the crop failure.

C. A. Evenson left Friday evening for Fargo on business.

A large crowd was in attendance at the dance given here Thursday evening.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wuncerlich Friday evening when the ladies of the town turned out and sprung the surprise on the happy couple. The evening was spent in playing games, singing and other interesting amusements. A delicious lunch was served at eleven. The newly weds received many beautiful presents. Those present report a very pleasant evening.

---