

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Arne Hovland received a very painful injury while raking hay last week and upon examination by Dr. Benson it was found that one of the small bones in the foot was broken. However, Mr. Hovland is able to be around.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Medley left Friday for Valley City to attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U.

J. E. Jacobson and family drove up from Dazey Thursday evening to visit at the home of his brother George.

Wm. Bothwell has purchased a new Ford and all telephone poles are being moved a safe distance from the road to insure safety for Billy and his Henry.

The Greenfield school board met Thursday at 5 p. m. and decided to remodel the Walum school house in time before school commences. The rooms will be painted and kalsomined and other minor repairs made. The contract was let to Henry Lewis.

John Steen spent a couple of days in Fargo last week.

Miss Dena Wallum went to Coopers-town Saturday to visit relatives.

Miss Clara Nelson spent between trains Saturday at the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evenson motored here from Glenfield Tuesday and visited for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Basmussen came over from Luverne Tuesday evening to attend the farewell party on the drafted boys.

A farewell party was given in the Hall Monday evening in honor of the three young men drafted from this community. A short program was given and games played, after which a very delicious lunch was served by the ladies. The boys were presented with a testament and song book given by the Walum Union Sunday School.

Mrs. John Overby was a passenger for Fargo Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nic Swenson returned Thursday from Valley City where their daughter is confined in the hospital.

Henry Lynch came up from Clinton, Ill., Tuesday, to look after his farming interests here. He returned to his home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Werner, Mrs. Geo. Jacobson, Miss Lela Campbell and Grace Wogsland motored to Edmunds last Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Layne. Miss Campbell remained at Edmunds as she expects to attend school at Carrington this winter. The balance of the party returned home Monday evening.

E. L. Nelson arrived Monday from Lawndale, Minn., where he spent the past two weeks visiting with his folks.

Chester Wallum, Wm. Matheson and E. L. Nelson went to Coopers-town Tuesday to enter the national draft army. The boys left with the Griggs county quota Wednesday in a special car making connections at Sanborn with a special train handling nothing but the new draft army boys to Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Fred F. Butler and Arve Wunderlich returned from a little hunting trip Friday with a fair bag. When examined later their bag contained two shypolks, but on account of darkness and poor eyesight they imagined they had ducks. However, we will excuse the mistake.

The St. Olaf church at Walum is now being shingled by Contractor Hareland.

August Werth recently purchased an Avery tractor and is busy turning over his farm west of town.

Mrs. Fred Nelson has sold her farm east of Walum to Bennie Haugen.

Homer Carroll has purchased the old Gunderson farm and will move on the place this fall.

Note Carefully

NOWADAYS it is doubly important to make sure of good reliable quality in the clothes you order. Price alone means nothing. True economy lies not in what you pay, but in what you get for what you pay.

Schoenbrun ~~and~~ Tailoring

Say "Shayne-Brun"

has back of it a prestige of many years standing and this guarantee: We are not Satisfied Unless You are.—

In the clothes we tailor you, you can bank on perfect fit, 100% Pure Wool Fabrics, 100% good full value. Such clothes are the most saving in the long run, the most economical; good reasons why you should leave your measure today with:

Let us fit you out. New line of Mackinaws, Sweater Coats, Overalls and