

Fred L. Weeks, well known here as surveying engineer at the time the Great Northern was built, has recently accepted a government appointment as member of the board of the Interstate Commerce Commission for the valuation of railroads. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks have broken up housekeeping in Kansas City, where they have lived for two years past, and will reside temporarily at Memphis, Tenn.