

Harry Westley was taken ill with appendicitis Saturday morning and the same evening was taken to St. Luke's Hospital at Fargo where he had an operation a few minutes after arriving there. He is reported to be doing well and improving nicely. Harry was accompanied to Fargo by his father O. M. Westley, his brother Martin and Miss Stangeland, a trained nurse from Iowa. The latter will take care of him while he is at the hospital.