

Julius Westley left last Tuesday for Richmond, Virginia, where he will take up his duties in the music corps. He was given a good send-off by a large number of the citizens of the village who gathered at the depot to bid him good-bye and wish him good luck. A number of patriotic songs were sung to the accompaniment of the cornet played by Chester Birch. Julius has the best wishes of a host of friends.