

style. The musical numbers were enjoyed by every one. There were vocal solos by Mr. Williams of St. Paul, a piano solo by Miss Langford, a duet by Misses Langford and Westley, a piano solo by Myrtle Westley and one by Ione Johnson, and a vocal solo by Miss Anna Lunde. After the program everyone proceeded to get acquainted. In the receiving line were the teachers, the members and officers of the school board. At the close of the evening an appetizing lunch was served. The members of the different committees who had the affair in charge are to be congratulated on the success of the evening.
