

Miss Grace Wogslund had the misfortune of receiving a very painful injury last Sunday evening. She was going into the house and slipped on the doorstep and falling in such a manner that the sharp edge of the doorstep met her knee causing a deep gash and bruise. Dr. Benson was called to dress the wound and her condition is now reported to be improving.