

A LETTER FROM HOSEA

Well Known Hannafordite Writes a Letter from Pennsylvania

Union City, Pa. 12 Sherman St

Feb 22, 1915

Mr Editor

I thought i would rite a few lines Because this is washingtons Burth day on account of Being a little Popular Myself i keep track of the noted men such as Washington and lincoln lincoln said once upon a time that what made a man of Note was a man that knowed what to do and when to Begin what kept me Back was i didnt know when to Begin if i had i mte have been an Editor of one of the largest Newspapers in the united states For my Natural talent all runs to riting i have got a little Bed News to rite to some of the Hannaford Folks i always said i thought there were the Nicest girls in Hannaford that there was in the world But O Mussy the union city girls are Just visions of lovelyness it has Been verry Nice spring Weather For over a week and the Robins and other Burd is have come there is a new kind of a Bord that has Flew in here that never was here before their Feathers are Black and no Body semd to know any thing about them and i was talking with a salt water sailor and he said he seen them in France they called them a Chipper Burd So hoping this letter will Find every Body Well

Hosea

B my health has Been verry Poor S since i came out here and i am so Poor and skinny that there nant Enough meet on my Bones to Bate a rat trap.

Hosea Woodward