

C. G. Dannum was called to Lanesboro, Minn. last Tuesday by a telegram stating that his mother was dying. Mr. Dannum tried to reach Lanesboro in time to see his mother alive as she died the same day the telegram was received here. Mrs. Paul Anderson, who had gone to Lanesboro the week before, and two other daughters from La Crosse, were present at their mother's bedside at her death.